This matter was predicated upon receipt of information from Detective [redacted] Massachusetts Bay Transit Authority (MBTA) Police Department, Boston, Massachusetts, who advised that it has been reported to him that [redacted] a [redacted] which is located on [redacted] Boston, Massachusetts, has been solicited by a Public Works Department employee for a $5,000.00 payoff. Supposedly, the $5,000.00 is to speed up and ensure approval of two permits which have been filed with the City of Boston by [redacted]

[redacted] is attempting to temporarily relocate [redacted] while MBTA construction is being performed at [redacted] Boston, Massachusetts. The two applications requested that permits be issued for a 30-day temporary license to operate a [redacted] Boston, Massachusetts. Telephone lines must be installed for the [redacted] which would require permission by the Department of Public Works.

On January 29, 1986, Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [redacted] District of Massachusetts, Boston, Massachusetts, was contacted concerning this investigation. AUSA [redacted] concurred that this investigation was warranted and advised that he would prosecute any Department of Public Works employees if sufficient evidence was developed to indicate criminal activity.
